Secretary's order directing Nageswara Rao and 2 peons of this Branch to report themselves to the Senior Surgeon for duty under him will be obeyed but before giving effect to it ~~the following to it~~ the following lines are respectfully submitted for kind consideration:

Since the abolition of the appointment of Plague Commissioner in Mysore and the amalgamation of the Plague Commissioner's office with the Secretariat the clerical establishment consisted of

Dewan's office

1. V. V. Sreenathi Rao.
2. M. Venkatanarappa.
3. T. V. Tiruvengadam.

Plague Commr's office

4 G. G. Narasimhachar

5. G. G. Narasimhachar
6 H.C. Nagesa Rao.
7. K. Srikantayya
8 C. Rama Rao.
9 M. Anantarama Anjangar.

Of these, numbers 2 & 3 have been drafted away to the Revenue & Political Branches respectively; 4 & 5 have been otherwise provided for in the Bangalore and Chital-drug districts. Four out of the 9 clerks having thus been disposed of, their work devolved on the rest; latterly Rama Rao too was sent away to work under Mr. K. Subba Rao. Rama Rao was maintaining Jo & diary registers and was also doing four copies There now remain 4 hands to do the work which formerly was being done by 9 hands and out

out of the four it is proposed to send one to the Senior Surgeon This it is feared will stand in the way of quick despatch of work. Although it is not pretended that every reference relating to plague matters is disposed of on the day on which it is received (as this is impracticable for obvious reasons) no room has till now been given for complaint as to delay. It is further submitted that Vapsa Rao has been in charge of records from the beginning, Srikantayya of Statistics and Anantarama Iyengar of accounts and the services of each are indispensable in its own way and while the temporary absence of any of these for a few days on account of illness &c is enough to interfere

interfere with the proper despatch of work, it is feared that the deputation for an indefinite period of any one of these under the Senior Surgeon will permanently injure the Branch.
